CERTIFICATE OF INDEPENDENT QUOTATION DETERMINATION

- 1 This Standard Bidding Document (SBD) must form part of all quotations¹ invited.
- 2 Section 4 (1) (b) (iii) of the Competition Act No. 89 of 1998, as amended, prohibits an agreement between, or concerted practice by, firms, or a decision by an association of firms, if it is between parties in a horizontal relationship and if it involves collusive bidding (or bid rigging). Collusive bidding is a pe se prohibition meaning that it cannot be justified under any grounds.

 - a. disregard the bid of any bidder if that bidder, or any of its directors have abused the institution's supply chain management system and or committed fraud or any other improper conduct in relation to such system.
 - b. cancel a contract awarded to a supplier of goods and services if the supplier committed any corrupt or fraudulent act during the bidding process or the execution of that contract.
- 4 This SBD serves as a certificate of declaration that would be used by institutions to ensure that, when bids are considered, reasonable steps are taken to prevent any form of bid-rigging.
- 5 In order to give effect to the above, the attached Certificate of Bid Determination (SBD 9) must be completed and submitted with the bid:

² Bid rigging (or collusive bidding) occurs when businesses, that would otherwise be expected to compete, secretly conspire to raise prices or lower the quality of goods and / or services for purchasers who wish to acquire goods and / or services through a bidding process. Bid rigging is, therefore, an agreement between competitors not to compete.

TERMS OF REFERENCE

For the appointment of a service provider to assist in reviewing SANBI's Vision and Mission and developing its Value Proposition

1. Purpose

Terms of Reference (ToR) to be followed for the appointment of a Service Provider to assist SANBI in reviewing its Vision and Mission and developing its Value Proposition.

2. Background

The South African National Biodiversity Institute (SANBI) contributes to South Africa's sustainable development by facilitating access to biodiversity data, generating information and knowledge, building capacity, providing policy advice, showcasing and conserving biodiversity in its national botanical and zoological gardens.

On 1 September 2004 the South African National Biodiversity Institute (SANBI) was established in terms of Act No.10 of 2004 through the signing into force of the National Environmental Management Biodiversity Act (NEMBA), No. 10 of 2004. The Act expanded the mandate of SANBI's forerunner, the National Botanical Institute (NBI) to include responsibilities relating to the full diversity of South Africa's fauna and flora, and build on the internationally respected programmes in conservation, research, education and visitor services developed over the past century by the NBI. SANBI has a broad mandate that is primarily derived from the NEMBA, but also from other legislation and processes over the past decade. The mandate is to explore, reveal, celebrate and champion biodiversity for the benefit and enjoyment of all South Africans which includes managing the National Botanical Gardens (NBGs) as 'windows' to South Africa's biodiversity for enjoyment and education of all people.

In addition to managing the National Botanical Gardens and the National Zoological Gardens, SANBI plays a leadership role in generating, coordinating and interpreting the knowledge and evidence required to support policies and decisions relating to all aspects of biodiversity. SANBI's science forms part a value chain that starts with very basic information on biodiversity and builds on these foundations with assessments, experiments, models and tools. In this way we can influence policy makers and contribute to Government's higher objectives of poverty alleviation, job creation and improving human wellbeing.

In order to remain relevant in an ever changing landscape, SANBI needs to evolve. The appointment of a service provider whose expertise lies in organisation redefinition will ensure that SANBI factors in all market (inclusive of socio-economic, political and other insights) and national and global insights in redefining its' mission, vision and value proposition.
