Good day Prospective Bidder

Ref: SANBI-BID G476-2023: Notice wrt BoQ in Excel Format

There has been requests from bidders to provide the Bills of Quantities (BoQ) in Excel format to assist them with pricing.

The following files have been uploaded for the abovementioned bid:

1. SANBI G476-2023 P&Gs- Building BoQ- Summary- Issued to Bidders
2. SANBI G476-2023 Mechanical BoQ- Issued to Bidders
3. SANBI G476-2023 Electrical BoQ- Issued to Bidders

Please note the following with regards to the use of Excel format files of the BoQs:

1. Where Quantities and/or Descriptions vary from that of the issued pdf (hard copy) of the bid document, the issued pdf (hard copy) bid document takes preference and shall be priced accordingly.
2. The Bidder is to ensure that any formulas within the Excel spreadsheet are checked and verified. The professional team accepts no responsibility for the correctness of this electronic Excel version of the Bills of Quantities and the bidder understands that the use of this electronic version of the Bills of Quantities is at the bidders risk.

The bidders are further reminded that that they are to price the pdf document and include as part of the returnables; no excel priced BoQ submitted instead will be acceptable.

Yours sincerely
